WAS WHEAT GUAR- ANTEED MADE GOOD?

Here is a nice little question for some wisacre to answer if he thinks he can. P. A. Spain writes from Texas asking, "How does the government proceed to make good to the wheat raisers the guarantee of $2.25 a bushel, when many of them it seems realized much less on the market than the $2.25 guarantee?" Of course, this was the Chicago guarantee which tapered down far less at counter ship, ping stations and tapered still more when grading rules were manipulated unscrupulously or ignorantly to the disadvantage of the producer. Yet this explanation does not quite answer the question or ought not to.

Mrs. Florence Johnson, teacher of the Rocky Glenn district school, southwest of Elmdale, Kansas, has had only two pupils the last term but she has been getting a salary of $70 a month.

Removes Superfluous Hair Roots and All—Instantly! (A Marvelous New Method.)

The new phelactine process is as different from the depilatory, electrical and other methods as night is from day. It actually removes the entire hair, roots and all, before your very eyes. It does this in just a few seconds, easily and harmlessly. Just try it. You can get a stick of phelactine at any drug store, with directions, which are quite simple. There is no odor to it, no irritating or poisonous constituents—you could even eat it without the least injury. It will leave your skin as soft, smooth and hairless as a babe's.

FEELING BLUE ALL THE TIME

Before Taking Cardui, This Georgia Lady Suffered Until She Would Have to Sit Down to Do House-work. Was Dizzy and Weak.

Dalton, Ga.—Mrs. V. O. Burnett, of Route 6, says: "I go down with my back and sides, not able to do my work. I suffered a great deal. I had a depressed, blue feeling all the time. I couldn't rest at night. I was nervous. I would be dizzy and just not account at all."

"I would have to sit down while trying to do the housework. It seemed I couldn't get my breath. I was afraid I would get past going altogether."

"I heard of Cardui and began using it. I could see after a half bottle it was helping me, so I kept it up. . . and soon I was like a new person. . . I knew Cardui did the work for me other medicine I ever took helped me as it did. I certainly can recommend Cardui."

This well-known medicine which Mrs. Burnett says helped her, is a mild, medicinal, purely vegetable tonic, for over 40 years used by thousands of women with similar results to those which this Georgia lady obtained.

Girls in Factory Strike to Stop Bonus Being Taken Up in Fines By "Bosses."

York, Pa. June 14.—Twenty-four girls employed at the New York Wall Paper mill walked out in protest against the practice of the firm in docking them $2 a week in addition to lost time. The stoppage resulted in a loss of 2 hours for the girls in addition to the complete closing of the mill. Their action resulted in the firm agreeing to add the $2 to their regular pay and the abolition of the bonus system and also payment for years lost as a result of the strike. The firm had been enforcing the fine system for some time under the guise of the bonus which was only granted when they had not been late or a stipulated time fixed arbitrarily by the firm.

Billion Dollars Worth of Hoarded Food In Warehouses

We have been at peace more than a year and a half. And have repeatedly been assured the cost of living would fall. But it has not. Food prices have risen 21 per cent during the last 12 months, and shoes and clothing prices 64 per cent. We are learning that war and inflation do not account for 100 to 2,000 per cent profits and huge corporation dividends.

"Sugar stocks are being released in just sufficient amounts to maintain the shortage and keep the price soaring," says Representative King of Illinois.

John F. Delaney, investigating for the International News Service, has found a billion dollars worth of food stored in Chicago alone. This may indicate why during the recent recession of prices for factory products that food prices rose 71-2 per cent, the greatest rise for any 30-day period since 1915.

After going through the cold and dry storage warehouses of Chicago Delaney declares the hoarding and manipulation of food supplies, are reaping a financial harvest unjustified by any shortage.

Chicago is one of the nation's main food centers. Delaney saw miles and miles of white and brown cliffs and ledges representing sacks and sacks of flour, sugar, coffee and other food. He found flour in abundance everywhere and overflow, but that were rotting on the docks. More than a million pounds was found just covered and rotting on the Burlington's wharf where it had been for upward of two years. Millions of pounds of hoarded coffee, tea and sugar also were discovered.

At the Central Cold Storage Warehouse, Delaney found 50 million dollars worth of food-stuff alone, including 33 million-eggs, 4 million pounds of frozen pork, 3 million pounds of frozen chicken, 5 million pounds of steak, and he finally got lost among 1 million pounds of cheese.

He found millions of pounds of tea in the Ontario Warehouse.

At the Conarch Refrigerating company's plant he learned 90 million eggs, 358,000 pounds of cheese and more than 2 million pounds of poultry were in storage.

He found millions of pounds of candy at the Chicago Cold Storage Warehouse; 50 million dollars worth of sugar, flour, canned goods and eggs at the Soo Terminal Warehouse, and another 50 million-dollar stock of food at the Booth Cold Storage plant.

As to coffee, he saw mines and mines of it, as he expresses it, but nothing on the sacks to indicate who the owners are. He found 10 million dollars worth of coffee in one warehouse alone, besides large quantities on the tracks.

While coffee has steadily been increasing in price, there has probably been enough of it stored in Chicago to supply a large part of the country for months.

Eighty-one importing firms and dealers have tea in storage in Chicago. At one warehouse Delaney saw 140,000 boxes of tea, and six floors packed to the ceiling with nothing but tea and coffee. There are 70 pounds of tea in a box.

Political conventions won't have to go far for a paramount issue this year. Hoarding and profiteering is such an issue, and the remedy must be found and applied.

Under the English law if a widow has received light from obstruction for 20 years, it becomes an "ancient light" and no building may be erected which may obscure it.
